

Quantic Document Retention and Destruction Policy

PURPOSE: Consistent with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, which makes it a crime to alter, cover up, falsify, or destroy any document with the intent of impeding or obstructing any official proceeding, this policy provides for the systematic review, retention, and destruction of documents received or created by Quantic School of Business and Technology (“Quantic”) in connection with the transaction of company business.

This policy covers all records and documents, regardless of physical form, contains guidelines for how long certain documents should be kept, and how records should be destroyed (unless under a legal hold).

The policy is designed to ensure compliance with federal and state laws and regulations, to eliminate accidental or innocent destruction of records, and to facilitate Quantic’s operations.

Document Destruction

Quantic’s Chief Technology Officer maintains administrative and student records and is responsible for overseeing record destruction. The Financial Controller maintains financial records and is responsible for overseeing record destruction.

Quantic’s staff, volunteers, members of the board of directors, committee members and independent contractors are required to honor the following rules:

- a. Paper or electronic documents indicated under the terms for retention in the following section will be transferred and maintained by the enumerated Quantic lead, in accordance with the below:
 - Administrative, student, and financial records are maintained by the Chief Technology Officer.
- b. All other paper documents will be destroyed after three years;
- c. All other electronic documents will be deleted from all individual computers, data bases, networks, and back-up storage after one year;
- d. No paper or electronic documents will be destroyed or deleted if pertinent to any ongoing or anticipated government investigation or proceeding or private litigation; and
- e. No paper or electronic documents will be destroyed or deleted as required to comply with government auditing standards (including the Single Audit Act).
- f. Destruction of paper financial and personnel-related documents will be accomplished by shredding.

Document destruction will be suspended immediately upon any indication of an official investigation or when a lawsuit is filed or appears imminent. Destruction will be reinstated upon conclusion of the investigation with the guidance of counsel.

Record Retention

Unless otherwise indicated, Quantic retains all digital records in perpetuity. Digital documents are stored in a secure, cloud-based environment that is regularly backed-up. Access to digital records is controlled by senior administrators. Quantic adheres to state and federal privacy and security laws. Physical documents meet or exceed the minimum maintenance requirements as outlined in Quantic's Document Retention and Destruction Policy.

For certain types of records, Quantic follows the document retention procedures outlined below. Documents that are not listed, but are substantially similar to those listed in the schedule, will be retained for the appropriate length of time.
